

Google GSuite Email Warmup Guide.

When you create a new Gmail or Gsuite Account, and you want to use for small Email marketing campaigns or bulk mailing. You need to Warmup the account first.

Warming up the account will allow you to give some good reputation and build trust and make your account look like a normal account.

Otherwise, if you start sending directly in a high volume, you will probably be blocked.

Here in this small document, I want to share with you my Warmup schedule to achieve the best out of your account and avoid being blocked.

Day 1: SEND 10 Emails

Day 2: SEND 20 Emails

Day 3: SEND 50 Emails

Day 4: SEND 75 Emails.

Day 5: SEND 100 Emails.

Day 6: SEND 150 Emails.

Day 7: SEND 200 Emails.

(DOT'T FORGET TO MONITOR YOUR BOUNCE RATE, USER INTERACTION, AND YOUR DOMAIN REPUTATION)

If everything is fine, continue:

Day 8: SEND 300 Emails.

Day 9: SEND 400 Emails.

Day 10: SEND 600 Emails.

Day 11: SEND 800 Emails.

Day 12: SEND 1000 Emails.

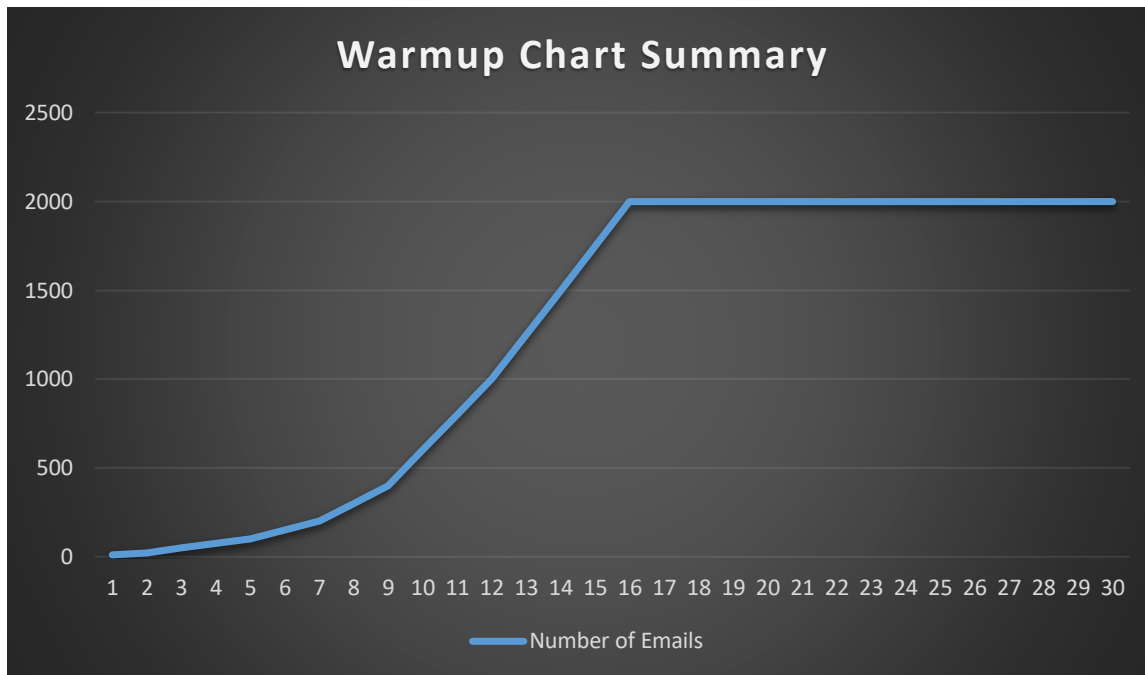

Day 13: SEND 1250 Emails.

Day 14: SEND 1500 Emails.

Day 15: SEND 1750 Emails.

Day 16: SEND 2000 Emails.

And continue sending 2000 Emails till the end of the month.

Don't forget to apply all other tips mentioned in the following Video:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=grObbCi6jFU>

Just follow up this simple schedule:

Very Important: SEND only to double opt-in registered emails in the Warmup period. And try not to send any promotional email, send only informative emails.

YOUR ACCOUNT IS WARMED UP.

GOOD LUCK.

Written and Tested by Hasan Aboul Hasan (H-educate)